

FEDERATION TALKS HULAS

Meeting Results In Discussion of Many Interesting Subjects.

The Civic Federation held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon in Public Service Association headquarters, taking up a large and varied number of subjects. Child labor and hula dancers, better mail carrier service and minimums, and a few other things were brought before the federationists, who gave each much earnest discussion.

Chairman Anderson of the legislative committee submitted a report on child labor in the Islands, containing a letter from President James Dole of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company, Mr. Dole explains the labor that children do in the canneries, stating that many of the children were sent to the cannery for employment by the Palama Settlement Association and other public charities and that the work is not arduous nor the surroundings unhealthful. The federation, however, believes that abuses may finally come in Hawaii unless a law covers the subject, and the committee was instructed to prepare a bill along the desired lines.

Chairman McChesney of the park committee, reporting on the recent gift by Queen Liliuokalani of a park to the city, which will be called Liliuokalani Gardens, said that options have been secured on adjoining property and a fund of $5000 will be raised for improvements.

Saloon conditions were brought up but no action taken, the feeling being that this matter is not in the province of the federation. It had been proposed to object formally to any Kakaako saloons.

Francis J. Green presented a resolution on the needs for more mail delivery routes, and considerable discussion resulted. A special committee of three will be named by President Arthur G. Smith to go into the matter.

When the federationists got onto the question of hula dancing, there was an interesting line of talk developed. Professor Cooke brought the matter up by mentioning the hula show advertised for a local theater. This started off a discussion of hulas, harmless or the reverse, of the haka-haka of Maori-land, the miki-miki of Fiji and the ghe-sha of Japan. Professors Gulick, Bryan, Cooke and Ford took part in debating the relative merits. The point was brought out that a hula if done in a seemingly manner is harmless and indeed an attractive promotion feature for the Islands. So the federationists talked over the proposition of denaturing the hula and making it serviceable as a Hawaiian attraction.

The Sheng Linn, the Chinese government student at the University of Maine, who shot Miss Christine M. Shaw, a young Orono school teacher, on the night of June 8, was found guilty and remanded to jail for sentence.

PETITION IS LAID ON TABLE

The petition signed on behalf of Captain Tripp and asking that the board reconsider its decision in connection with the appointment of Captain Foster as harbor master in his place, as reported in the Bulletin yesterday afternoon, was dealt with by the harbor commissioners sitting in a committee of the whole. On resuming, they reported that the petition had been laid on the table and the board endorsed the action of the committee.

Inquiries were made from the board by Sam Johnson, manager of the Pahoa lumber mill, Hawaii, as to what the board called seasoned ohia. He stated that several prospective contractors were asking him if he could supply the blocks. He was told what he wanted to know and can now talk business with all the contractors.

The committee of the whole also dealt with an application from the Kahului Railroad company in respect to a wharf at the angle of the shore and the breakwater. The company wants to deepen the site for its lighters. The chairman is to obtain an opinion from the attorney general as to the whole proposition.

There is under consideration too an application to the Governor to obtain by proclamation an area of land adjoining the Oceanic wharf. It is proposed to use this for storing the cans of pineapple that come from windward Oahu.

GUESTS WERE HOSTS LAST NIGHT AT HAWAIIAN HOTEL

Dancing was revived again at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel last night when the guests entertained their friends. The big lanais were lit up with colored lights and those present had an enjoyable time. These dances will be held at more or less regular intervals from now on the guests and the hotel management giving them their turn.

Among those who were present last night were: Miss L. Turner, Miss Edith Smith, Miss Josephine Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Sandated Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Friedly, Mrs. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. ROBINSON IS NOT CANDIDATE

Hawaiian Politicians Would Boo Him, But He Refuses.

Leading Hawaiian politicians are discussing a movement to back M. P. Robinson, vice-president of the First National Bank, for Delegate to Congress or for Governor should Fear not be reappointed.

Mr. Robinson disclaims any political aspirations in the direction indicated and yesterday declared emphatically that he intends to take a mainland and European trip shortly for an extended vacation, but the Hawaiians are not satisfied that, if enough pressure were brought to bear, he would not consent to take one of the two positions mentioned.

Mr. Robinson yesterday promptly denied that he will have anything to do with political matters. He stated most emphatically that he has been contemplating making a vacation trip to the States, and to Europe in the early part of next year. He wants rest, he said, after having been in harness a long time.

"No," said Robinson, "I would not consider any political honor now. In the first place, I do not care to get into politics, and secondly, I would like to have a rest. I have not been feeling well lately and I want to go to the States and to Europe, where I can have a good rest."

He also said that he would not be a candidate for the gubernatorial position should Governor Fear fail to get the re-appointment at the hands of President Taft.

The fact is that Mr. Robinson's name has been discussed quite generally by some of the leading politicians. They claim that his name would be acceptable not only to the Hawaiians but to the other elements as well.

When Mr. Robinson was president of the Board of Health he did all he could to relieve the burden of the Hawaiians in the leper settlement. This action on his part has impressed the Hawaiians so much that they are now willing to back him up for any political position. During the monarchy Mr. Robinson was Minister of Finance under Queen Liliuokalani.

JUDSON HARMON GETS SUPPORT

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—The Ohio Democratic Press Bureau, located at Columbus, O., and dedicated to advancing the nomination of Governor Judson Harmon for President, became much disinterested with the various congressional polls, all showing that Harmon was second or third choice, Woodrow Wilson and Champ Clark being considerably ahead of him. A never and more complete poll was taken and the bureau announces the standing of the leading Democratic candidates thus:

The Democrats of the Senate and House voted as follows:
For Harmon..... 54
For Clark..... 51
For Wilson..... 37
For Folk..... 13
For Marshall..... 14
For Underwood..... 8
For Carter Harrison..... 2
For Governor Foss..... 1
For Dix..... 1
Non-committal..... 82

Captain Thomas Fleming Day, who crossed the Atlantic in a tiny yawl, and his companion Theodore R. Goodwin, arrived in New York on the liner Koenig Albert.

BROWN & ROBINSON TO OPEN AT BIJOU

Brown & Robinson, the team that opens at the Bijou tonight, made a big hit in Australia, to judge by their press notices. The following mention is given them:

At the commencement of the second part of the program, Messrs. Brown and Robinson (who, by the way, have just completed a most successful season at the Tivoli, Sydney, under engagement to Mr. Harry Rickards) made their appearance, and it was some little time before they were allowed to depart. They are both vocalists of a very high order, and the audience was very agreeably surprised at their performance. They opened with a novel turn, entitled "The Bricklayer and His Laborer," in which they both appear attired in laboring costume. They are supposed to be engaged on the erection of a music store, and an organ has already been deposited on the partly finished premises. At knocking off time, some music is suggested. One of the performers seats himself at the organ, whilst the other rolls unconcernedly on a wheelbarrow. They open with a beautiful rendering as a duet, of the "Lost Chord," with orchestral and organ accompaniment. An outburst of genuine applause greeted this number, and as a first encore, they did even better in "Sweet Genevieve." In response to a further encore, "Annie Laurie" was sung. Still the audience was not satisfied, and as a concluding number, the vocalists gave a fine rendering of "Killarney."

HYPNOTISTS WILL EXTEND ENGAGEMENT

That the hypnotists Ayesha and Barnett are giving to the public a first class attraction is proven by the enormous crowds which continue to attend the Savoy. A great number were turned away last night.

Moses Kawa, the young man who was put under a hypnotic sleep for forty-eight hours in J. Hopp's window, was awakened last night on the stage. There were no ill effects attendant on the long sleep, in fact the subject declared he never felt better in his life.

Ayesha and Barnett will extend their engagement in Honolulu by special request of the management, which changes the announcement made in previous issues of this paper. And they wish to announce that they will continue to give a complete change of program, offering an especially good show all this week.

BASLER WILL GIVE HAWAII PUBLICITY

Carl Basler, who has recently been representing a New York publishing company in Honolulu, will leave on the Korea on September 25 for a two years' trip around the world to introduce and establish agencies for the Excelsior Code System, compiled by A. J. Wirtz of this city. Incidentally, Mr. Basler, representing the Hands-Around-the-Pacific Club, will boost Hawaii and other Pacific countries for all he is worth.

Mr. Wirtz, the inventor and compiler of this code system, has been at work on it for over fourteen years, and commercial firms who have studied the result of his compilation unite in declaring the work to be monumental.

Mr. Basler will visit every commercial center of importance in the world, and the introduction of this code system to the world will serve to keep Honolulu and Hawaii before the eyes of all civilized peoples, for it is published in this city by the American-Hawaiian Publishing Co.

WARRANTS OUT FOR AUTOMOBILISTS

Declaring it is their duty to safeguard the public from being run over by heedless automobilists, motorcycle officers Chilton and Manuel Abreu have sworn out warrants for the arrest of the following people, who, the officers claim violated the ordinance covering automobile speed regulations.

Those served with warrants are R. M. Morton, H. Taylor, Albert Afong, A. H. Dondoro, Wm. Crume, E. F. Rowald, R. W. Eames, Martin Grune, W. A. Thomas, E. P. Jackson, L. H. Rickey and H. C. Bailey. These people will appear before Police Judge Monsarrat tomorrow morning to give their explanations. Some of them have been in court before, and it is intimated that they will be dealt with severely. The motorcycle officers are determined to put a stop to fast and heedless driving of the automobiles in Honolulu.

Greenfield, Mass., is threatened with a water famine.
